A WOMAN'S BACK.

Aches and Pains Will Disappear If the Advice of This Hopkinsville Citizen Is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains.
Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault.
Backache is really kidney ache.
That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Hopkinsville women know this.
Read what one has to say about it:

Miss L. A. Hester, of 212 East 14th street says: "To walk for any distance or to over exert myself in any way, intensified the aching in my back from which I was a long time a continual sufferer, and if I caught cold it seemed to settle in the same region and made me almost miserable. When rising in the morning I felt stiff and sore, and often found it difficult to dress myself. Another symptom of my complaint was a weakness of the kidneys, which annoyed and distressed me beyond words. I doctored but found little if any relief until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, which had been strongly recommended to me, and which I procured at Thomas & Trahern's drug store.
They did me a vast amount of good.
The pain in my back ceased, the secretions were regulated and my health was improved generally.
The pills perform what they promise in every way.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

There are real things in the July McClure's. They fairly crowd each other from cover to cover, and leave a lasting impression of vigorous life and interest. There is more even than this on these pages.
There is deep significance and rich enjoyment. In the opening article ex-President Cleveland tells the inside story of "The Government in the Chicago Strike of 1894." Here for the first time in print are the facts concerning this great industrial crisis and the manner in which it was met by the Federal courts and authorities. It is a graphic story as well as most illuminating of the powers and duties of the government. Mr. Cleveland's insistence that the protection of interstate commerce and the United States mails was the natural function of the Federal government, a position later sustained by the Supreme Court, marked a new way for the guidance of the nation. How this important end was reached he tells clearly, even dramatically.

Westmoreland, Kans., May 5, 1902. Ballard Snow Liniment Co.: Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow short order. My sister, Mrs.

Sophia J. Carson, Allensville, Mifflin Co., Pa., has a sore and mistrusts that it is a cancer. Please send her a 50c bottle. Sold by R. C.

THE POWER OF JOURNALISM

"Our Republic and Its Press Will Rise or Fall Together," Says a Famous Editor.

In the North American Review for May, Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the New York World, who has endowed a college of journalism at Columbia university, has an article justifying the school and defending it against criticisms that have been made. It is a cogent article, observes the Boston Herald, for Mr. Pulitzer is a skilled writer who knows how to set forth his thoughts clearly. He makes out a strong case in this instance. Unquestionably, such a school, well organized and well equipped with instructors, can do much for developing a native aptness for newspaper work. But the vindication of this specific endowment will appear in the men whom the school sends forth and the work they do. What especially interests us in Mr. Pulitzer's article is the great importance which he attaches to the newspapers of the country as the moulders of public sentiment and the conservators of national ideas. The office and responsibility of newspapers have not been more seriously set forth than in his words: "Our republic and its press will rise or fall together. An able, disinterested, public-spirited press, with trained intelligence to know the right and courage to do it, can preserve that public virtue without which popular government is a sham and a mockery. A cynical, mercenary, demagogic press will produce in time a people as base as itself.
The power to mould the future of the republic will be in the hands of journalists of future generations." For these reasons he urges his colleagues to aid the experiment which he has ventured to endow, feeling that its success depends upon their generous aid and cooperation. But is it not plain that the power of the press as a saving agency depends not so much on the skill of journalists as on their nobility of character and their moral motive? When we see so many accomplished public men, adepts in all the technical arts of politics, putting their power to unpatriotic and selfish uses, it seems to us that the salvation of the republic depends more on the instruction and quickening of conscience than on greater capacity for work. This is also the peculiar need of journalists, and especially of proprietors of journals, who, as a rule, will be capitalists, not trained in any school of journalism and having little of the spirit of heroic self-sacrifice in a missionary undertaking."

THE UNFRIENDLY COYOTE.

A Brute That Never Makes Friends with Nor Loses Its Fear of Man.

I have never had any difficulty in making friends with the gray wolves I happened to be sketching, writes J. M. Gleeson, in "The Coyote" in St. Nicholas. Immediately on my appearance, no matter what they were doing, they came at once to the bars to be scratched and talked to, and when their coats were changing and their skins sensitive they would stand there any length of time while I pulled away the loose tufts of hair, their action expressing a somewhat sullen friendliness.
But with the coyote it was different. They never make friends with nor lose their fear of man.
Generally speaking they resemble the prairie wolf, but are much smaller and of browner color; their fur is also longer and the tail more bushy. They vary considerably in color, changing with the seasons. In winter their coat is lighter, in summer darker and with more brown. Black coyotes, while not common, are sometimes seen, but these are only freaks of nature.

Back to the Earth.

By a series of experiments conducted in his back garden, a policeman has discovered the answer to the conundrum: "What becomes of pins?" He has found that pins are resolved into dust. Hairpins, which he watched for 154 days, disappeared by rusting away at the end of that time. Bright pins took nearly 18 months to disappear; polished steel needles nearly two years and a half; brass pins had but little endurance; steel pens at the end of 15 months had nearly gone, while their wooden holders were still intact.

THAT RED STAIN

On the handkerchief sends a chill to the heart of the woman who had kept on thinking—"the cough will get better after a while." Now she knows the fight for life is on and looks eagerly around for medical aid.

There is one medicine whose marvelous record for cures commends it at once to every sufferer from lung troubles as safe and sure.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures obstinate, deep seated coughs, bronchitis, weak and bleeding lungs, emaciation and diseases generally, which, if neglected or unskillfully treated, terminate fatally in consumption.

"In the 'Lewiston Journal,' November 15th, 1901, printed in Lewiston, Maine, I find an advertisement of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Mr. C. H. Brann, (provision merchant), of Bridgton, Maine, Box 314. 'I want to tell you what the 'Discovery' did for me years ago for spitting of blood. The first three bottles helped me so that I was practically cured for one year. Then I took three bottles more with the same result, and lastly I took three bottles more, making nine bottles in all. It has now been over fifteen years and I have not been troubled with spitting any more blood.'

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.
